

SPEAKING

Reneesha Parrish, RN, BSN

“Don’t get lost in the wilderness because of the storms of life.”

I speak to women's ministries, conferences, retreats, and healthcare groups about faith that holds when life does not. Twenty-five years as a nurse taught me what people carry. Ministry training taught me what the Word says about it. I bring both into the room. Available in person and virtually.

What I speak on

- Faith in the Storm. What Scripture actually says about the season you are in the middle of. Built for women tired of being told to simply have more faith.
- Becoming a Pearl. Healing from the past, and how God uses what you wish He had removed. The message behind the Faith Pearlz podcast.
- The Caregiver's Own Heart. For nurses, aides and family caregivers. Pouring out without running dry, and what happens when you do not tend to yourself.
- Speaking Life Over Your Circumstances. The practice of declaring Scripture out loud, and why it changes what you believe. Drawn from the devotional She Blooms.

Formats

- Keynote, 30 to 45 minutes.
- Workshop or breakout, 60 to 90 minutes, with printable materials for attendees.
- Retreat sessions, multiple talks across a weekend.
- Virtual, for groups anywhere.

How to book

Fill in the next page and email it to info@faithpearlz.com.

You can type directly into this PDF, save it, and attach it. Or print it, write it in and send a photo. Either works.

A few practical things

What happens next

- 1 Email the completed form to info@faithpearlz.com.
- 2 I will reply within a few days to confirm availability and talk through the details.
- 3 Once we agree on the date and topic, I will send a short written agreement covering timing, format, travel and honorarium.

What I need from you

- A microphone and the ability to project slides, if the format calls for them.
- A contact person who will be on site the day of the event.
- For travel events, details on lodging and transportation arrangements.

What I bring

- The talk, prepared for your specific group rather than pulled off a shelf.
- Printable handouts or study guides for attendees where the format suits it.
- Books available for your attendees, if you would like them.

On honorarium

I work with ministries of every size, including ones with no budget at all. Say so on the form and we will find a way.

The budget line is there so neither of us spends three emails discovering a mismatch.
